

Share the gift of reading with a contribution towards the purchase of books for the Lititz Public Library.

Gift-A-Book

Earmark your contribution for the purchase of books. Choose your favorite genre or subject area.

Memorial Gifts

A library book is a lasting remembrance of a departed friend.

Honor Gifts

Commemorate special people—grandparents and teachers— and events — birthdays and holidays.

Our librarians will choose books to match your honoree's special interests.

A letter will be sent to you and to the honoree or their family to let them know that you have donated a book in their honor.

A book plate will be placed in the book to acknowledge the honoree. Everyone who borrows the book will be able to share your gift of reading.

The Lititz Public Library is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organization (EIN 23-6406263). All donations are tax deductible, in full or in part, according to the laws of the Internal Revenue Service. Please contact your personal tax advisor regarding specific questions about your donation.

Consider a lasting gift to the Lititz Public Library that costs nothing during your lifetime.

The Lititz Public Library has been fortunate to receive generous support from farsighted individuals who made contributions through their Wills, often at a more significant level than they could have made with an outright donation.

A bequest is a legacy that enriches future generations.

Supporters can make a charitable gift by naming the Lititz Public Library as a beneficiary in their Will. Your Will can include gifts in the form of property, a percentage of your estate or the residue of your estate (property remaining after other bequests have been fulfilled).

Although only a few sentences are needed to make a bequest in your Will, it is recommended that benefactors consult with a lawyer to prepare the Will or Codicil.

If you wish to make a bequest to the library, we suggest the following wording:

I give, devise and bequeath [$ fixed amount or percentage] to the Lititz Public Library, Inc., a Pennsylvania non-profit corporation (EIN 23-6406263) located in Lititz, Pennsylvania 17543.
